The National Catholic Pledge to End the Death Penalty

"All Christians and people of good will are thus called today to fight [...] for the abolition of the death penalty," – Pope Francis

In response to Pope Francis's call, I pledge to educate, advocate, and pray for the end of the death penalty.

The end of the death penalty is within reach. CMN has launched a Pledge to End the Death Penalty to invite Catholics and people of good will to take a first step to unite and strengthen our impact to publicly oppose the death penalty, walk the path of restorative justice, and become advocates for all life.
